

First Controller

- initialize/create outlets for views, labels, and pickers in swift file
- load plist into separate file that will keep track of our plist info
- set up picker to change images and text

Second Controller

- initialize/create outlets for labels, and pickers in swift file
- retrieve plist info from file
- set up picker to change images and text

Third Controller

- initialize/create outlets for labels and cells in swift file
- retrieve plist info from file
- create cells with images and titles
- add buttons inside so when a user clicks on it then they will vote for that character
- send info to fourth controller or to our file with info

Fourth Controller

- initialize/create outlets for labels and cells in swift file
- retrieve plist info from file as well as voting info
- create cells with images and titles